Profile

Rubén G. Sotelo Paniagua is handling contentious matters, both at the federal and local level, of a civil and commercial nature, now with the modality of oral trials.

Rubén defends the interests of national or foreign companies, public or private, whether as plaintiffs or defendants, considering the possibility of always mediating positions to sign a judicial agreement to avoid greater legal expenses.

At his firm, collaborators have electronic signatures granted by various local courts as well as by the Federal Judiciary Council, in addition to access to electronic judicial files in the state of Mexico, Mexico City, Jalisco, Nuevo León, Puebla, Coahuila, Guanajuato, Querétaro, Veracruz and Yucatan, mainly, speeding up procedural times.

His focus is on handling complex issues and bankruptcy cases, negotiating with banks and creditors for debt restructuring or payments in kind, and executing Debt Recognition Agreements.
